Beswick Bears Club Licensing and fees $1,500	The applicant wrote: The grant will help the club pay its fees with the local Football League (BRFL) and whatever that is; left from paying these fees will go back to the club to buy things that will benefit the club.	Certificate of currency to be provided.	No	The project is taking place in the Roper Gulf Region and benefiting children of the region. The project is one-off	Yes	The applicant wrote: The local team from the community gives the men (young and old) pride and the ability to show that they are willing to do something positive not just for them but also for their family through representing themselves in sports. This grant would give them hope that they would like to continue to play football for their local team the Big River Football League next year as it will mark 10 years since they won a flag within the competition.	Nil have been identified.	The applicant wrote: Fighting in community has been a big impact with most of our men (young and old) often fighting each other or more less its one family group fighting the other family groups who are all from the one community and we as a club want that to stop and get all our men to come together as one to build on a better club for our community.	The applicant wrote: This project will help our community have the ability to participate in the sport most of our men both young and old loves with will give them the opportunity to represent their community in sports.	The applicant wrote: It will keep them occupied and off boredom as often, most communities intend to turn to violence, fighting, and we the club do not want our men fighting each other through violence but support each other and our community through sport.

Mungoorbad a Aboriginal Corporation Robinson River Fishing Competition $3,000	The applicant wrote: This has been an annual community driven event that MAC is trying to make sustainable for the community. It's an event that all people from RR look forward to every year. The grant funds will be used and put towards material prizes such as lure, rod lines, fishing gear, tackle boxes and tents. Each material prizes will accompany the category winnings.	ORG NAME is a not-for-profit and incorporated association. The organisation is contributing $3,000 of their own funds and has secured additional funding through grants and fundraising. Certificate of currency not applicable.	No	This project is taking place in the Roper Gulf Region and benefiting residents of Robinson River. This project is a one-off cost to Council.	The application was submitted on time and complete.	The applicant wrote: This project ties in well with Roper Gulf's mission of "Working as one towards a better future". We want the competition to be valued for its honesty, equality, respect, trust and fairness. It also ties in well with Roper Gulf Regional Council's goal numbers 2 and 3 which is "To protect and care for our environment" and "Safe, strong and vibrant communities".	Nil have been identified	The applicant wrote: The collaborations between the different groups is a good thing for our community. We always get very good collaborations between families. Every competition time there was always a sense of "united front" and a sense of "fun".	The applicant wrote: It will create opportunities for families to teach children about caring for country and teach language names for animals and environments. Teaching kids to be skilful hunters and gatherers and ignite confidence in both adults and children as they spend time on country, on the rivers, creeks & waterholes of the Garawa Land Trust.	The applicant wrote: It will create a sociable weekend where all will enjoy and have fun with. The children will feel really good about their winnings. It remains an event that the whole Robinson River community looks forward to every year.
